

NC State University Summer Academic Program

A comprehensive and all-inclusive program for students to prepare for graduate study in America

Program Length:

4 Weeks

Application Due Date:

May 1, 2012

The Global Training Initiative (GTI) and selected academic departments at NC have brought together a team of dynamic and engaging NC State faculty who will devote considerable time and energy to this project. The internationally experienced GTI staff will provide outstanding administrative and logistical support to the program. In addition, our program's advantages include close proximity to our state capital, extensive campus facilities, a beautiful and friendly climate and a variety of extra-curricular activities.

Program Highlights:

- special academic short courses for the participants(proposed subjects include statistics, economics, mathematics, political science, etc.,)
- intensive English classes
- a U.S. culture class provided by GTI staff
- lectures and panel discussions with faculty and staff on how to apply for graduate schools in America
- a weekend North Carolina beach trip
- a three day educational tour of Washington D.C

Cost:

The total program cost is $4,500 includes: 2 meals per day (breakfast and dinner) lodging, tours and program fees. This does not include: airline tickets to Raleigh, NC, visa application fees, optional activities, and additional off campus activities.

Contact:

Shiqin Xu

Director of China Program
Global Training Initiative at NC State University
919.515.0116 (o)
shiqin_xu@ncsu.edu